

2020 Public Interest Scholarship Application

$1495 Tuition

Eligible students must (1) graduate in winter 2019 or spring 2020; (2) sit for the July (or fall) 2020 bar exam; and (3) provide adequate employment verification. If not employed, students must provide documentation of a commitment to work in the public interest sector after graduation.

Applications must be received no later than April 15, 2020 for the July (or fall) 2020 bar exam. Once approved, the credit card provided will be charged a $250 non-refundable payment to secure the discounted tuition. Payment in full is due by April 15, 2020. Failure to meet these deadlines may result in the public interest scholarship award being removed from the student's account. All refunds and cancellation policies will apply.

- i. Employed Students: Submit employment verification or acceptance of an offer for employment within the public interest sector along with this form. Please include a brief description of position and salary. Note that judicial clerkships may require additional information.
- ii. Unemployed Students: Provide a brief description of your post-graduation plans and a resume demonstrating your ongoing commitment to work in the public interest sector as established by one of the following:
  1. Acceptance into an official, law school-sponsored public interest scholarship program;
  2. Acceptance into an official, non-university public interest fellowship or program; or
  3. Record of public interest work throughout law school.

Submit completed forms to pint@themisbar.com.

Certification

I, _____, affirm that I have (1) accepted, or intend to accept, a public interest employment position at _____, OR (2) demonstrated an ongoing commitment to work in the public interest sector as per one or more of the requirements referenced above. I further certify that neither the above organization or office, nor another law firm or organization, is paying for my bar review course or providing me with any stipend for bar review. I also affirm that if my post-graduation plans change such that I decide not to seek employment in the public interest sector, I will notify Themis Bar Review and renounce this award. I understand that the granting of this award is within the sole discretion of Themis.
