

PRESBYTERY COORDINATING TEAM

The Presbytery Coordinating Team is responsible for:

- Coordinating the work of the Presbytery
- Continuing to explore vision for the Presbytery's journey
- Serving as the interpreter for the ministry and mission of the Presbytery
- Organizing Presbytery meetings (planning, content and worship)
- Telling our story and providing resources in Stewardship for congregations
- Preparing the annual budget
- Encouraging the generosity of congregations
- Nominating the nominating committee
- Overseeing matters of personnel in relation to paid and volunteer staff
- Provides oversight of all continuing mission partnerships
- Relating to all other councils of the church

The Presbytery commissions the Presbytery Coordinating Team to:

The Presbytery delegates the specific authority to for the oversight of all continuing mission partnerships to the Presbytery Coordinating Team. A continuing mission partnership is defined as an established, ongoing, and recognized relationship that the Presbytery has with a particular mission organization.

Utilize existing Presbytery entities to manage each continuing partnership or to create new teams when needed.

Propose to the Presbytery, as part of the annual budget process, the allocation of funds for continuing mission partnerships.

Approve expending funds for the support of a particular partnership or to delegate that approval to the appropriate entity.

Request that the Nominating Committee find appropriately gifted nominees for positions on boards or committees of these continuing partnerships as necessary.

Recommend to the Presbytery the addition of other continuing mission partnerships to the oversight of the Presbytery Coordinating Team.