

Collect Books for Camp Hope!

St. James Lutheran Church in Houston received a generous grant from United Way to host Camp Hope* (day camp) in three locations this summer specifically targeting apartment complexes in underserved neighborhoods of their community! The grant is focused on three areas - Limiting summer learning loss for campers through STEM and literacy activities; College and career readiness for the 30 high school staff that run the three camps; Parent engagement through health and wellness classes for parents at each site. It's an amazing way to imagine Camp Hope in new ways in the community!

St. James expects a total of 150 campers to participate across all three sites this summer! We want to gift each camper with two new books to take home as their own to support literacy after camp ends. Join churches across the synod in supporting St. James in this huge undertaking by buying a new book on the provided list.
