MASTERS CAMP FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS:

1. What kind of material is taught at a MASTERS camp? Our entire curriculum is offered at our Masters Camp! Not only do teams learn our curriculum, but this camp also offers a more intensive training opportunity for Game Day and Performance competitive teams. A high focus on creative stunts, pyramids, and transitions for Performance Teams and Game Day routine elements for Game Day teams will be taught. Please refer to our cheer and dance curriculum page to see all that we have to offer!

2. How many teams attend your MASTERS camps? Depending on size of teams, we allow anywhere from 10 to 18 teams at our masters camp. We pride ourselves in providing quality, individualized instruction at all of our camps! All of our masters camps are staffed with a ONE to ONE ratio! One instructor per team to guarantee maximum instruction for you and your team! Our resort camps are set up in a way so that all teams receive amazing instruction and attention at all time! We set a cap on our masters camp enrollment once they reach our one to one staffing limit.

3. When is payment due? A $50 deposit per person (camper & coach) is due upon registration for your MASTERS CAMP. Full balance is due two weeks (14 days) prior to camp.

4. How many instructors will I have at my Masters Camp? We staff our masters camps with AT LEAST a ONE STAFF to ONE TEAM ratio! You will have an instructor with your team at ALL TIMES! No need to wait for private coaching at our camps! We teach the material in a group setting and then immediately break in to one on one interaction to make sure your has plenty of feedback and attention.

5. What meals are included at your Masters Camps? Breakfast is provided FREE for teams staying at our host hotel listed in the lodging options! Camp includes 3 lunches and 2 dinners.

6. Do you provide transportation at your Masters Camps? All activities are located in the same area for our masters camp (hotel, camp facility, and movie theater). Other than dropping off at camp on the first day and picking up on the 3rd day, no additional transportation is needed.

7. Is there squad against squad competition at your Masters Camps? No. We founded our company with our goal of camp being to bond as a team, learn new material and skills, and learn the meaning of safety and fun! We do not have team competitions at camp HOWEVER we do offer individual competitions during camp in several different categories! Campers can sign up for these individual competitions once they arrive at camp! We also offer team evaluations that are performance based to award teams for a job well done!

8. Are you instructors certified by the AACCA (American Association of Cheerleading Coaches and Administrators)? Yes, all of our instructors are AACCA certified and extensively trained using hands-on spotting techniques and proper stunting progressions!

9. Does my team bring a home routine to camp? No. We do not require teams to bring home routines to camp! Our hope is that teams work on the basics before camp so that we can build on the basics and progress to more advanced skills during the 3 days we have with you!

10. When are parents allowed to come to camp? Due to insurance and safety regulations, we can only allow registered campers and coaches during normal camp hours HOWEVER all parents/guests are invited to attend the final day of camp at 3:00 p.m. for the performance showcase and final awards.

11. Is there an All American program at your camp? Yes! Campers are encouraged to sign up to audition for our All American program at each camp! Our All American auditions are held on the third day of each camp. Those selected as an All American will receive a certificate, All American Medallion, All American Patch, and an invitation to a performance opportunity over the winter break. Up to 8 members of your team may sign up for All American auditions. If you are a high school team and you have more than 8 seniors, all seniors may audition.

12. Is lodging included in the Masters Camp price? No, in order to better serve our customers, we allow each team to choose their lodging provider based on their budget, wants, and needs. This allows some teams to drive in on the first day of camp, commute each day to camp, or stay 3 nights in a hotel! It's all up to the team and their coach! This works out to the benefit of each team since they are able to purchase exactly what they prefer hotel wise! All of our host hotels listed in the lodging section offer FREE breakfast as a part of the room package!
