Criteria for judging applications include:

- a) Financial need.
- b) Ability to meet the planned aviation goals as shown by recommendations and academic records.
- c) Aviation maintenance and related activities (flying, model building, science projects, aviation employment...and the like) as described in the personal letter and recommendations.

CHECKLIST

1. APPLICATION

Be sure you have completed and signed the application form.

2. TRANSCRIPTS

Please attach a copy of all transcripts (high school, technical, vocational, military, or college) of school records.

3. CITIZENSHIP

Please attach a copy of either your birth certificate or your passport.

4. PERSONAL LETTER

Please attach a personal letter giving your reasons for selecting a professional aviation career path. Do include descriptions of your aviation related activities, with emphasis on what means the most to you. Discuss how you would use the scholarship to attain your career goals. What future employment do you plan to pursue? Do you have any extracurricular activities, hobbies, and interests? Personal letter should be limited to one page.

5. FINANCIAL STATEMENT (see last page of application)

Show your expenses this past year, 2012, and expenses estimated for this year, 2013, on the form provided. This includes school fees, rent, food, car insurance, health insurance, gas, etc. Then list your sources of income for the next year. This includes anticipated loans, scholarships, financial aid, help from family, etc. List separately your anticipated aviation education expenses. This includes plane rental, instruction fees, tests, texts, etc. This financial outline must be as comprehensive as possible because the first criterion for consideration is need.

6. RECOMMENDATIONS

Please have two people who know you well, excluding relatives, write letters of recommendation. One of these persons must be familiar with your mechanical interests, abilities, and activities. The other person should be someone who knows you well enough to discuss you as an individual. Include the letters with this application package if possible or have them sent to the same address. Letters from teachers or employers are preferred.

SUBMISSION

Please submit only the six items of this application listed above by March 31, 2013 via US Mail to:
