

Information on the Website

Operators:

As a condition of NCAA certification, activity operators agree to operate their activities in accordance with the applicable legislation and certification requirements. With the transition to an online certification process and the discontinuation of paper mailings, the Basketball Certification website has become an essential bulletin board of information to participants affected by certification.

Activity operators will be held accountable to all information posted and are encouraged to frequent the site for changes that may occur. Failure to adhere to these requirements will result in the denial of present and/or future certification. See: Adverse Actions

Nonscholastic Coaches:

As a condition of being granted an NCAA Participant Approval to coach in NCAA-certified events, coaches whose teams participate in NCAA-certified events agree to operate their team(s) in accordance with the applicable legislation and certification requirements. With the transition to an online certification process and the discontinuation of paper mailings, the Basketball Certification website has become an essential bulletin board of information to participants affected by certification.

Coaches will be held accountable to all information posted online and are encouraged to frequent the site for changes that may occur. Failure to adhere to these requirements may result in penalties. See: Adverse Actions
