REPORT OF THE
NCAA DIVISION II BASEBALL COMMITTEE

ACTION ITEM.

Site Selection.

1. Recommendation. That Cary, North Carolina, be designated as the host site for the 2014 and 2015 NCAA Division II Baseball Championships. The town of Cary and Mount Olive College will serve as co-hosts for the competition to be conducted at the USA Baseball National Training Complex.
2. Effective Date. Immediate.
3. Rationale. The Division II Baseball Committee and NCAA Championship and Alliance staff feels strongly that Cary, North Carolina be designated for the foreseeable future as the home of the Division II Baseball Championships, based on their performance serving as host for the past four years.

Recent sites include:

Year	Site
2008	Sauget, Illinois
2009	Cary, North Carolina
2010	Cary, North Carolina
2011	Cary, North Carolina
2012	Cary, North Carolina

Cary is an experienced host and was one of the six pilot NCAA Championship Cities. As the host site for the last four Division II Baseball Championships, the support from the Division II Baseball Committee and baseball community has been overwhelming supportive of Cary. The facility in general and playing surface specifically have received rave reviews as being of the highest quality available and plans are in the works for additional improvements to be made to the venue to further improve the student-athlete and fan experience at the championships.

4. Estimated Budget Impact. The proposed budgets for the 2014 and 2015 championships are very similar to those of the previous four years, wherein all expenses have remained within the championship budget.
5. Student-Athlete Impact. None.

Regionalization Talking Points

- ✓ The Division II philosophy statement (as legislated in Division II Bylaw 20.10) indicates that a Division II member "believes in scheduling the majority of its athletics competition with other members of Division II, insofar as regional qualification, geographical location and traditional conference scheduling patterns permit."
- ✓ Regionalization is a Division II championships policy that requires sport committees to select a predetermined number of teams in each of the regions of the sports involved. This policy is based on an assumption that due to the regional nature of most Division II schools, sport committees should evaluate and select championships participants based on regional results, as opposed to a national evaluation in which head-to-head and common opponents' results are less prevalent.
- ✓ The Division II regionalization philosophy provides access to national championships from every region of the country. Regionalization does not guarantee that the best eight programs in the country will compete for a national championship, but does guarantee that the different regions of the country will be represented at the championship by each region's best team.
- ✓ In addition, regionalization encourages a member school to compete against opponents within its region, instead of seeking contests against opponents outside the geographical region. This scheduling incentive is aimed at helping schools manage their regular-season travel budgets and limit missed class time for Division II student-athletes.
- ✓ The Great American Conference applied for active conference membership by December 1, 2010. Per the authority of the Division II Membership Committee, the committee approved the application from the Great American Conference inasmuch as the conference satisfied all legislated requirements. The conference shall be an active Division II conference, effective September 1, 2011.
- ✓ With the approval of a new conference, the Division II Championships Committee was required to place the conference in a geographic region for championships selections.
- ✓ Per Bylaw 31.3.4.5, to be eligible for automatic qualification, a conference must be a member of the Association for two consecutive academic years, unless granted a waiver by the Championships Committee. Thus, the Great American Conference shall not be eligible for automatic qualification until September 1, 2013. The Great American Conference shall be eligible for at-large selections in 2011-12 and 2012-13.
- ✓ During its deliberations, the Championships Committee considered three models. With each model, the following factors were considered in totality as all factors must be considered together and not as stand-alone items (i.e., no one factor is more important than another):
 - conference membership and location of institutions;
 - number of institutions in each region to ensure fair access ratios to the championships;

- size of each region (e.g., mileage between institutions);
- possible future growth of new conferences;
- maintaining no more than three AQ conferences in each region; and
- a transition time for institutions to either adjust or begin scheduling institutions in their new region.

At no time during the deliberations by the Championships Committee did historical or perceived strength of conferences factor into the recommendation.

Recommendation by the Championships Committee:

Effective 2012-13, the Great American Conference and the MIAA will move to the Central Region and the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference will move to the South Central Region.

DIVISION II REGIONALIZATION MODEL

The following regionalization model was approved June 2007 by the NCAA Division II Championships Committee with a mandatory implementation date of 2008-09.

Principles for establishing regions:

- Regions will be determined by state boundaries.
- A state may reside in more than one region.
- All opponents within your geographic region are in-region contests.
- Conferences will be assigned to specific regions for automatic qualification and post-season competition.
- Conference opponents will count as in-region contest regardless of geographic location.
- Opponents residing within your state regardless of conference affiliation are in-region contests.
- All opponents (regardless of conference affiliation) in states contiguous to your state are in-region contests.

The committee has approved the following principles and any changes or additions to these principles must be approved by the committee.

Additional Principles:

- Institutions in the state of Montana will be able to consider Nebraska and Colorado as contiguous states (and vice versa). (There are no Division II institutions currently in state contiguous to Montana's southern border.)
- The west region may consider the states of North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Colorado and New Mexico as contiguous states (and vice versa).
- Institutions located in MINNESOTA and MICHIGAN may compete against each other and be considered as contiguous states (those contests count as in-region).
- Institutions located in Colorado and Texas are considered contiguous and may count competitions between these institutions as in-region contests.
- Institutions located in Texas and Mississippi are considered contiguous and may count competitions between these institutions as in-region contests.
- Institutions and conferences with a common mission (i.e. Historically Black Colleges and Universities) may consider interconference contests or independent contests against schools with similar missions as in-region, regardless of their geographic location and/or regional assignment.
- Institutions in the Atlantic and East Regions will be able to consider the District of Columbia as in-region contests.
