Council to Host July 27th Webinar Training Session in Advance of Upcoming Scallop A21 and Groundfish A23 Public Hearings

The New England Fishery Management Council will host another webinar training session to help fishermen and other stakeholders prepare for this summer’s string of public hearings on Scallop Amendment 21 and Groundfish Amendment 23.

WHEN AND WHAT TIME:  Monday, July 27, 2020 at 4:00 p.m.

HOW DO I JOIN:  First, you need to register for the webinar at this orange link:

Register for the Training Webinar > HERE

After registering, you’ll receive a confirmation email.  Save the email.  Then, on Monday, July 27th shortly before 4:00 p.m., call up the email and click on

Join Webinar

IMPORTANT:  Anyone who wants to speak during the webinar must register for and join the webinar.  That’s because you’ll need to click on a “raise hand” button on the webinar screen to let the organizer know you want to talk.  Registering will allow you to mute and unmute yourself when it’s your turn to provide comments.  Additionally, you can call in by phone if you’d like – the information will be in your email confirmation – but be sure to join the webinar first.

WHY SHOULD I DO THIS:  The Council has set up this additional public training webinar to help industry members and other stakeholders walk through the steps needed to successfully join the webinar and provide oral comments.  This is an opportunity to get comfortable with webinar meetings, and it’s a good way to test out muting and unmuting your microphone to make sure you can be heard.
