CAMBRIDGE, Mass. – Thirty-three conference all-stars representing 16 schools from the five New England Division II and III football playing conferences have been selected to the 2025 New England Football Writers Association All-New England team. The team, selected by a committee of media relations representatives from the six conferences, honors the best Division II and III players by position in New England from the 2025 season.

The Division II Northeast 10 leads the team with ten players selected. The New England Women's & Men's Athletic Conference had eight picks while the Conference of New England had seven. The New England Small College Athletic Conference came away with five selections while the Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference has three honorees.

Conference of New England titlist Endicott College leads the team with four selections. NEWMAC champion Springfield College, Northeast 10 co-champions Assumption University and Bentley University, and the Coast Guard Academy each have three. NESCAC winner Wesleyan University, CNE runner-up Curry College and Franklin Pierce University each place two players on the team. Additional players selected are from Bates College, Massachusetts Maritime Academy, MIT, Nichols College, Plymouth State University, Post University, Southern Connecticut State University, Trinity College, UMass Dartmouth, Williams College and WPI.

The team will be honored at the New England Football Writers Captains and Awards Banquet on Thursday, December 11, at the Sheraton Framingham Hotel and Conference Center. Reservations must be made no later than Friday, December 5 at 4:00PM, and may be made at <https://newenglandfootballwriters.com/captains-%26-awards-banquet>. Tickets are $75/person. Reservations are made on-line only and are non-refundable. The banquet is open to anyone that wishes to attend. All attendees, including award recipients, are expected to make a paid reservation.
