

CONNECTICUT CHAPTER VIRTUAL CAREER PANEL SESSION

Wednesday, December 9, 2020

11:00 am – noon EST

DESCRIPTION

The goal of this free event is to give our Connecticut-area statistics, biostatistics, and data science students information about potential internships and job opportunities with several major companies. In addition, panelists from these companies will discuss how summer internships and entry-level permanent positions in our field have changed in the COVID-era.

Hosted by the Connecticut Chapter of the American Statistical Association
