MATTHEW KADISH

CAPTAIN'S LOG:

Matthew Kadish is the author of The Earthman Jack Space Saga, which chronicles young Jack's attempt to save our planet from an army of evil aliens. Matthew closed down his former business to devote himself to being a full-time novelist. He feels that this was a good decision on his part, because his fondness for blowing things up is much more widely accepted in the science fiction writing business than it is in the world of internet marketing.

Kadish was born in Dayton, Ohio in 1978, and is currently living in Las Vegas, where he spends his days writing, cooking, and thinking up inventive ways to take over the world. Don't worry; every time Matthew comes up with a solid plan for world domination, his trusty canine sidekick talks him out of it. Kadish enjoys all things sci-fi and fantasy-adventure related, and loves to hear from his fans. He can be reached via Facebook, Twitter, and Goodreads!
