Jesus Christ Superstar is an iconic musical phenomenon with a world-wide fan base. In celebration of its 50th Anniversary, a new mesmerizing production comes to North America. Originally staged by London's Regent's Park Open Air Theatre and helmed by the acclaimed director Timothy Shearer (Crazy for You, Into the Woods) and award winning choreographer Drew McOnie. This production won the 2017 Olivier Award for Best Musical Revival garnering unprecedented reviews and accolades.

"This is not your grandmother's 'Superstar.' Drew McOnie's choreography has the explosive feel of barely contained ecstasy, filled with flailing movements that evoke old time tent revivals where snake handlers spoke in tongues and miraculously cured the sick. Tom Scutt's smoke-colored costumes give the piece a timeless feel, as does his towering, sleek, steel-and-scaffolding set. Stark and shadowy, lighting designer Lee Curan's work is so rhythmic it almost feels like a part of the orchestra."
