S.O.A.P. | Meditating on God's Word

The acronym S.O.A.P. stands for Scripture, Observation, Application, and Prayer. This is a personal devotion and Bible study method designed to help you go from reading the Bible to meditating on it. Biblical meditation can be defined as contemplating or thinking about Scripture over and over again. It is the process of saturating your heart and mind in the truth of God's Word. S.O.A.P. will help you slow down, look more closely and think more deeply on God's Word. Grab a notebook or journal. Pray before you get started!

Scripture: Read a portion of scripture. As you read, pay attention to any phrase or verses that grabs your attention or leave an impression on you. Maybe it is a phrase or verse that provokes a question, triggers a thought or stirs an emotion in you. Pick that one specific phrase or verse for the remainder of your study.

Observation: What do you see in this passage? Who are the people involved? What are the key words or ideas? Are there any commands to obey, truths to believe or examples to follow? Consider summarizing this specific phrase or verse in your own words. What is the message or lesson of this passage? Write down a few sentences of observation.

Application: How does this phrase or verse impact your life today? How might God want you to personally respond? What are you going to do? How can you personally apply this Scripture to your circumstances? How would your life look differently if you took an action step and put this into practice? Why might God be bringing this to your attention? What is God saying to you? Write down a few sentences of application.

Prayer: Turn this passage into a prayer. Ask God to give you greater understanding., wisdom or the strength to follow through and take this action step. Maybe pray a prayer of thanks of confess an area of sin. Ask God for help to obey His leadership in hour life. Write down a few sentences of prayer.

Radical: A Study through the Book of Acts September 13-November 29, 2020

After walking with Jesus for three years, the disciples found themselves in the beginning of Acts wondering what's next. Equipped with a commission, fueled by prayer, and filled with the Holy Spirit, they started putting into practice what they had seen and experienced in Jesus; the way he loved God and loved others, the way he served and challenged the religious authorities.

This new way of living, the Jesus way, not only made a radical difference in their lives, but it began to radically transformed their communities and the world. It wasn't easy, and there were bumps along the way, but as the Church united around the risen Jesus rather than rules and rituals, people took notice and everything changed.

The same is true today. As followers of Jesus continue putting into practice the Jesus way of living and bring the Kingdom of God closer to earth, we will see a radical difference in our lives, families, communities, and world because of Christ's influence in and through us.

This guided journal will include five readings each week through the end of November.

At the end of the journal are weekly pages to take notes during the sermons.

Week Five: Genuine Community

Acts 5:1-11

The community of the early church would have been completely disrupted by a few false actors. God dealt seriously with Ananias and Sapphira for that reason. This story is disturbing, but a reminder for all of us still that God invites us to genuine community with him and one another. Genuine leaders are needed in the church, and it starts with us.

Sermon Notes & Prayers

Week Eight: The Jewish Counsel

Acts 15

The pivotal chapter in Acts when Jewish Christians come face to face with their prejudices and decide what really matters to God. This was no easy issue for the first followers of Jesus.

Week Ten: The Sending Church

Acts 16, 17

From the beginning, the Church has been a mission outpost sent out into the world with the message of Jesus. No matter what culture, political climate, or groups they went to , the message of Jesus was their sole focus of hope. We will be highlighting and praying for our global mission partners this week.
