

Amar es Servir

Many lives have been touched by the work being done at Agua Viva. The children's home is supported solely by individual people through child sponsorships, general donations and donations for specific projects to enable those at Agua Viva to do God's will for the ministry.

As the Lord blesses the work and children there, they are able to share those blessings and the good news of Christ with the people of Guatemala.

Experience the blessing of serving the children of Agua Viva alongside caring believers who are making a difference in the lives of children.

GUATEMALA Agua Viva Project

DEC 28-JAN 4, 2020

background

Agua Viva Children's Home is located in Chimaltenango, Guatemala. It was founded in 1977 by Sherwood Oaks Christian Church member, Joyce Heinlein, and her family after a tragic earthquake that killed over 20,000, leaving many orphans in its wake.

Agua Viva is now home to over 82 boys and girls ages 3 to 17. Some are orphans; some from broken homes with no father. All suffered extreme poverty.

Many of the children enter Agua Viva hungry, dirty, and without hope. They have only the clothes they are wearing. Within weeks the Lord works a transformation and their faces beam with hope.

Agua Viva's vision is to rescue and educate children to be successful Christian adults with the desire and ability to help their own people.

Agua Viva's property covers 14 acres. An on-site school was established for grades K-8, while the older children attend a private Christian school in the area. Everilda Tzirin Bal (Evy) is the Guatemalan Director. Guatemala Children's Mission is the stateside organization that oversees the work and organize service project for the home.

Hundreds of adults and teenagers have come to Agua Viva to do short-term mission work, bringing with them a heart for these children and needed supplies. The Sherwood Oaks team will be interacting with the children and doing work projects on the grounds. No prior experience in construction or teaching is necessary.

What does God want to do through you—and in you—as part of this mission team?
