Job Posting - Director of Music & Worship Arts (Part Time)

Union Chapel Indy (UCI) is seeking a part-time Director of Music & Worship Arts to give musical and creative leadership to the worship ministry of UCI. Tasks include collaborating with pastoral leadership to design and develop meaningful, creative worship (in a variety of styles) throughout the year including Sundays, seasonal worship events (including Christmas Eve) and other special worship occasions; as well as developing and leading volunteer musicians, working with technology and A/V teams, and being fully responsible for worship music for weekly Sunday worship, including advance planning, communication, setup/strike, and coordination with media and A/V team. (See complete job description at unionchapelindy.org.)

The successful candidate will have advanced skill in at least one instrument (preferably piano or pipe organ) and have experience leading a worshipping community in a variety of worship styles, as well as a personal commitment to Christ and the work of the Church.

Salary negotiable and dependent on experience and expertise. Additional hours, responsibilities, and pay (up to full time) will be considered for the candidate that proves effectiveness in the ministry areas of faith formation and discipleship (all ages), and worship media and technology.

To apply, email cover letter, resume, salary requirements, and link to video of your musical leadership in a worship setting to: elizabeth@unionchapelindy.org. Full applications received prior to December 1, 2020, will be given priority consideration.
