As we enter Lent and reflect on the death and resurrection of Jesus, it would be great to read all four gospels together. This plan calls for two chapters a day, some days three.

Why choose the gospels? Because we are followers of Jesus, it's imperative that we read and understand his life story. Read larger chunks of Jesus' story, chew on it and growl with it – like a dog gnawing on a bone. Pray for God's Word to get into your bones and muscles so that you can be more like Jesus than you were before!

As you read God's Word in the gospels, consider:

1. What is God saying?
2. What does it mean?
3. What does it mean for me?
4. What does it mean for us as the church?

Throughout Lent, you will have the opportunity to interact with others over the Lenten reading plan. Look for:

- Weekly blog at zpc.org
- Opportunities to interact on ZPC's Facebook page
- Lenten Reading Book Club – discuss what you've been learning in person; Thursdays at 12 pm or Sundays at 8 am in ZPC Chapel.
