Home Group Discussion Guide Come and See | The Gospel of John

Week 4 | 2.2.20
John 2:13-25

Icebreaker:

Growing up in your family, who had the worst temper?

1. Spiritual practice – Lectio Divina (Divine Reading): Lectio Divina is an ancient practice of reading, meditation, prayer and contemplation to help you hear God's voice. Please have two different people read the entire passage (John 2:13-25) aloud. Then meditate silently and pray for God to help you understand the passage. Then answer: What stands out to you (What do you like? What don't you like? What surprises you? What is God saying?) in this passage? Take time for all to share.
2. What do you think was the purpose for people coming to Jerusalem and to the Temple? How would people selling animals for sacrifice and money changers inhibit this?
3. Jesus is obviously emotional and even angry. Knowing what we know about Jesus, does this seem out of character? Does it surprise you or bother you? How do you explain his anger?
4. Are there things that seem out of place (or would seem out of place) in our building or in our sanctuary at ZPC? Do they affect your sense of worship, building relationships, or learning?
5. At the end of the chapter, Jesus would not entrust himself to the people who believed in him after seeing his miracles for "he knew what was in everyone." What did he mean by this? Do you think of yourself as someone whom Jesus could "entrust himself" with?
6. Author and Pastor Tim Keller says, "You know the God you're following is real if he disturbs you; and is not real if he doesn't disturb you." In what ways do you see God disturbing you or disrupting your life?
