Love for Jesus 1	Poor in Spirit 2	Pure in Heart 3	Students 4	Friends 5	Str8up 6	Servants Heart 7
My we feel steadfast love for you, Lord, as we come together to praise and worship you.	Dear Lord, may we be rich in humility, contentment, submission, and gratitude this week.	Dear Lord, may I live my life with a pure heart while I am living in an impure world.	Lord, energize the students with a hunger to learn as they go back to school.	Lord, please bless my friends. Lift them up on this day and may they feel complete in the knowledge of you.	Lord, bless Str8up Mission. May students there be excited to gather and learn through fellowship.	Lord, please direct me to use my gifts in a ZPC ministry serving others.
Commitment 8	Those Who Mourn 9	Peacemakers 10	Teachers 11	Joy 12	Grace 13	Habitat for Humanity 14
Lord, may I live my life in such a way that my commitment to you comes first in all matters. May I be reminded of Joshua 24:15.	Lord, remind us to provide comfort on this day to all who mourn. Isaiah 61:2	Lord, bless all peacemakers and servant leaders in their work. Thank you for their willingness to bridge the gap.	Lord, bless the teachers as they begin the school year. May they seek you as they begin each morning and feel your presence throughout the day.	Jesus, you are my joy. Thank you for leading me in the way I should go.	Dear Lord, we are so grateful for the grace you give to all believers. Ephesians 1: 7-8	Lord, bless Liz Qua and her team of women as they plan and build a home. Bless the Women's Build and keep them safe.
Salvation 15	Meek 16	Persecuted 17	Parents 18	Trust 19	Marriage 20	Bible Study 21
Father, thank you for sending Jesus. We are reminded that you named Him Jesus because He will save His people from their sin. Matthew 1:21	Dear Lord, may we listen to the meek, for they have submitted to your will.	Dear Lord, may I be a voice of support for those unjustly persecuted.	Dear Lord, please calm the nerves of parents as the school year begins. May they support the students and teachers through prayer.	Thank you, Lord, that I can always trust your character and Word.	Lord, remind me to treat my spouse with love and respect. May we put our spouses in front of all others on this earth.	Lord, please touch the hearts of our congregation that they will want to join a Bible study and dig deep into your word.
Leaders of ZPC 22	Righteousness 23	Equality 24	Wisdom for Leaders 25	Obedience 26	Devotion 27	Home Groups 28
Lord, bless the leaders of our church. May they continue to follow your Word.	Lord, we are grateful that you exchange our sin for your righteousness. May I live this day with a grateful heart.	Dear Lord, may I view people as you do--your beloved children. You do not play favorites, nor should I.	May our world leaders come together. In your Sovereignty, guide their decisions. You are Lord over all!	Jesus, help me to rid myself of anything that would compromise my obedience to You.	Lord, I am reminded of the joy I feel when I start my day with your Word. Thank you for the Bible.	Lord, please search the hearts of ZPC for those wanting a connection to a small group of friends. Encourage them to join a Home Group.
Forgiveness 29	Merciful 30	Health Care Workers 31
Lord, remind us to get along with each other, forgiving those who wrong us, because the Lord forgave me. Colossians 3:13	Dear God, have mercy on me, a sinner. Luke 18:13	Thank you, Lord, for Health Care Workers who continue to battle disease in a difficult pandemic that seems to linger on.
