

Paul Spiegel MD, MPH

Paul Spiegel, MD, MPH, a Canadian physician, is internationally recognized for his research on preventing and responding to complex humanitarian emergencies. Before becoming Professor and Director of the Johns Hopkins Center for Humanitarian Health, Paul was the Deputy Director of the Division of Programme Support and Management at the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees. Prior to joining the UN in 2002, Paul worked as a medical epidemiologist in the International Emergency and Refugee Health Branch at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. He also worked as a medical coordinator with Médecins Sans Frontières and Médecins du Monde in refugee emergencies, as well as a consultant for numerous organizations.

