Harbor Freight Tools will celebrate the grand opening of its new store in Del Rio on Saturday, Nov. 30 at 8 a.m., the store’s headquarters announced.

The Del Rio store, 3401 Veterans Blvd, is the 14th Harbor Freight Tools store in Texas. The store, which tools itself as America’s lowest priced quality tools at the lowest prices, said the first 50 customers attending the grand opening will receive a free tape measure.

“We’ve excited to serve customers in the great city of Del Rio,” said Juan Lonergan, store manager. “At Harbor Freight, we’re passionate about providing our customers with the tools they need to get the job done, and always at an affordable price. We look forward to welcoming auto technicians, contractors, woodworkers, homemakers — anyone who needs affordable tools.”

The 3,000-square-foot store stocks a selection of tools and accessories in categories including automotive, air and power tools, store tools, hand tools, power tools, generators, welding supplies, shop equipment and more. Harbor Freight’s hand tool sets come with a lifetime warranty.

The new Harbor Freight Tools store will be open seven days a week. Mondays through Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m., and Sundays from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

The family-owned company started in Southern California in 1980, when 17-year-old Eric Smidt began transforming his father’s small phone sales business into a successful mail order company. That first year, Eric bypassed the resellers and cut deals directly with factories, realizing that if he could buy tools directly for less, he could pass the savings on to the customer.

The company opened its first store in 1989, and today Harbor Freight Tools has over 1,000 stores across the country, 30,000 employees and more than 8 million customers.

Harbor Freight Tools is one of the nation’s fastest growing retailers, opening two new stores every week. Still privately owned by Smidt and based in California, Calif., Harbor Freight Tools has maintained true to its humble beginnings. IMMIGRATION

STAFF REPORT

U.S. Border Patrol agents assigned to the Bracketville Station apprehended a group of aliens in a large group of individuals discovered a hand-bound, one of the aliens’ backpacks, U.S. Customs and Border Protection said.

“Illegal aliens possessing a weapon pose great risks to our agents and our communities,” Del Rio Sector Chief Patrol Agent Raul L. Ortiz said. “We have seen how dangerous encounters with armed individuals can be for agents. Thankfully, this incident did not become violent.”

On Nov. 1, agents encountered a group of six men, five women, two children and two infants in the group. Agents learned the group was traveling from Mexico to southern Texas in an attempt to enter the country illegally. The operation was conducted in the Bracketville area.

The group was returned to Mexico and the agents continued their patrol.”

A local airman is seeking assistance from the public to pay for his mother’s funeral services. Airman First Class James Ott, stationed at Laughlin Air Force Base, is currently dealing with the loss of his mother.

Ott’s mother passed away on Oct. 31 and he is currently planning for, providing financial assistance and personally preparing his mother’s funeral services. Ott is one of two next of kin family members.

Arrangements are being made for Ott to attend the services in San Antonio.

One person in the group that gets lost, and restroom ettiquettes.

Aguilar’s mom character ranged from typical Mexican mom sayings to a day at the supermarket. The crowd laughed at the reality of the jokes. Before the show closed out, Aguilar asked the audience if they were familiar with how parties were done in the 1990s and early 2000s. Aguilar performed dance music that was popular during that time and thanked the audience for a wonderful show.

“I hope this isn’t the first or the last time I come,” Aguilar said. According to the comedian, attendees should keep an eye out for a future video in which they may make an appearance.
