STAY WITH SPONGE BOB AT D.R. NICKELODEON

Nickelodeon Hotels & Resorts Punta Cana in the Dominican Republic will open what it's billing as the "world's first and only Pineapple Villa," which will be the resort's signature dwelling. The two-bedroom, three-bath playful presidential suite is a one-of-a-kind experience that allows guests to step inside SpongeBob's world, referencing the popular cartoon character who "lives in a pineapple under the sea." With 2,292 sq. ft. of indoor and outdoor living areas, including a garden, patio, signature infinity pool and private butlers to take care of each and every need, guests should prepare to be wow-ed. All-inclusive rates at the Pineapple Villa start at $3,800 per night for up to four adults and two children or two adults and six children. The resort opens this summer.
