SPECIAL ENGAGEMENTS & PREMIERS

Friday, January 1 – Thursday, January 7

A SCREWBALL NEW YEAR!

When little boy is to appear on stage with a pony and enough fog and smoke to make him look like a young devil. The New Year's Eve show has been a tradition for many years, and the action is usually quite hilarious. The performers are all skilled at their craft, and the audience is always on the edge of their seats, waiting for the next joke or act. This year's show is no exception, and the audience can expect to be entertained throughout the night.

THE BLITZEN SELECTS

Gold Diggers of 1933

January 1 – January 7

Chapter 3: It’s 1933, and the Depression is at its peak. The Great Gatsby is published, and the Roaring Twenties are a distant memory. The Gold Diggers of 1933 is a musical featuring the songs of the Great American Songbook, and the cast includes such stars as Ruby Keeler, Ginger Rogers, and Fred Astaire. The story follows a group of young women who are determined to make something of themselves in the midst of the Great Depression. The music is upbeat and lively, and the show is a great way to celebrate the start of a new year.
