Art House Presents | Concert
ADVENTURE JAZZ
$25 | May 3 • 7PM

The Art House presents an intimate evening of adventurous music featuring three virtuosic improvisers: innovative drummer and composer Devin Gray (Brooklyn/Berlin), acclaimed saxophonist Loren Stillman (NYC/Missoula), and versatile Montana guitarist Alex Nauman. Blending intricate melodic compositions with open improvisation, the trio explores the outer edges of contemporary jazz. Expect dynamic, explosive, and thoughtful interplay as these musicians navigate complex structures, spontaneous collaboration, and the expressive nature of sound itself. This performance will be a must-hear for serious jazz listeners and anyone interested in the evolving language of improvised music.

Art House Presents
JEFFREY MARTIN
$20 | May 4 • 7PM

A favorite among some of the our staff, we are thrilled to be a stop on renowned singer-songwriter Jeffrey Martin's national tour as part of our Art House Presents concert series - May 4th at Art House Cinema & Pub! As we try to expand the scope of performers we bring in, we know this is an artist you're lucky to see and hear in an intimate space like our venue. Jeffrey Martin has been reaching for quiet and stories since he was a kid hiding under the covers with a Discman. He wrote his way through a writing degree, a teaching degree, and years of high school English classes filled with unruly brilliance, all while making records and playing shows whenever he could. Eventually, he left teaching to follow the same dream he encouraged his students to chase. After releasing Thank God We Left the Garden, he recorded Alive July 25, 2025, a no-edits live album captured in Portland with Sam Weber. Jeffrey tours full time now, still missing teaching like an old friend he'll meet again.
