DAVE BARBER CINEMATHEQUE OCT 2026

PROGRAMMING NOTES

Architecture+Film continues until October 6 with The History of Concrete. Following the finale of his acclaimed HBO series “How To with John Wilson”, NYC documentarian John Wilson looks to the bedrock of his beloved New York City for inspiration and structure. Presented in partnership with Winnipeg Architecture Foundation.

An art student uses a lucid dreaming elixir to break through creative blocks, but soon finds herself trapped in a nightmarish underworld. Deanna Milligan and Ramsey Fendall’s dark comedy Lucid opens October 2.

Kiyoshi Kurosawa’s latest is an elegant series of mysteries set in the court of a samurai nobleman. The Samurai and the Prisoner opens October 7.

Inspired by our recent 50th anniversary programming we had last September, join us October 17 for Moving / Still: Animation at the Winnipeg Film Group, guest-curated by Winnipeg animator and experimental filmmaker Jim Pomeroy. This program offers a survey of animated works produced by filmmakers associated with the Winnipeg Film Group from the early 1970s to the present day.

Join us on October 31 for The Saturday Morning All-You-Can-Eat-Cereal Cartoon Party: Halloween Edition! 3 Hours of HALLOWEEN-THEMED Retro Cartoons, Commercials and PSAs – and all the cereal you can eat! Dairy free options available! Curated by David Bertrand.

BIKINI DRIVE-IN

Bikini Drive-In returns October 31 with the new restoration of “meta-physical splatter film” Begotten. Viewer discretion is strongly advised!

Comedian, star and co-founder of Kids in the Hall, Kevin McDonald presents Sam Raimi’s Evil Dead II on October 8 for McDonald at The Movies! Generously sponsored by IATSE 856 Manitoba.

With their second film, Shatara Michelle Ford puts their singular stamp on the American road movie. Dreams in Nightmares opens October 14.

Maya Annik Bedward’s Black Zombie digs beneath the blood-soaked spectacle of modern horror to uncover the zombie’s buried and unsettling origins. Opens October 14.

Cult-O-Rama returns October 22 with Screamplay, playing with In the City, a trilogy of three acclaimed short films by Rufus Butler Seder and the Boston Black and White Movie Company. Presented in partnership with Sookram’s Brewing Co. and generously sponsored by IATSE 856 Manitoba.

A decade after his death, genre-defying filmmaker William Greaves has one last trick up his sleeve with what he considered the most important event he captured on film: a 1972 party he engineered with the living luminaries of the Harlem Renaissance. Once Upon a Time in Harlem opens October 23.

The improbable life of French poet Arthur Rimbaud unfolds with all the shock and playfulness of his poetry in Patrick Wang’s latest feature, A.Rimbaud. Opens October 23.

An irreverent biopic vividly realized through fantastic psychedelia and handmade sets with an ever-topical feminist approach, Caroline Golum’s Revelations of Divine Love opens October 29.

The new restoration of Ken Russell’s The Devils opens October 30! Alternately hailed as a masterpiece and derided as pornography, its anti-authoritarian outrage and critique of institutional hypocrisy feel more urgent than ever.

Who was Dave Barber?

Dave Barber was the programmer at the WFG’s Cinematheque since its inception in 1982. He was a crucial figure in the development of independent cinema in Winnipeg and an outstanding ally to generations of Winnipeg filmmakers. Dave passed away in 2021. On the celebration of what would’ve been his 68th birthday, we officially renamed the cinema Dave Barber Cinematheque in his honour.
