BFS Companies started in 1974 as an agricultural business (Bruceon Farm Service) when Marshall Bishop bought the Southern States store in Bruceon Mills, WV. This side of our business has had steady growth over the years with four Southern State stores and 18 bulk oil facilities in WV, MD, PA and OH. In the early 1980s, the first BFS Foods convenience store opened in Mt Lake Park, Md. Since then, we have a growing convenience store chain with more than 63 locations and 8 beverage stores in our four state operating area. This development has been done through acquisitions and new constructions. BFS is firmly committed to providing goods and services that meet the needs of the many communities we serve. With more than 2,000 employees living and working in these communities, we are constantly aware of the changing needs of our customers. That's why we also operate 80+ branded fast foods in or next to our BFS Foods convenience store locations. These brands include Burger King, Little Caesars Pizza, Subway, Dairy Queen, IHOP, Huddle House, Tim Hortons Café & Bake Shop and Gloria Jean's Coffees. For more than 40 years, our BFS mission has been to provide better, faster service to our customers and career development opportunities for our employees who wish to move forward. WebsiteBidfood Bidvest Logistics BFS Group is a UK-based food services wholesaler and distributor. [1] The company operates as two main commercial divisions: Bidfood (formerly known as 3663, Bidvest 3663 and Bidvest Foodservice) is a Best Food Logistics food wholesaler (formerly known as Bidvest Logistics also known as its contract distribution division and also known as its common user unit) is an external provider of storage and logistics services to several British casual dining chains. It also has various specialized local departments and brands. BFS Group Limited was a 100 % subsidiary of Bidvest, an international service, trading and distribution company listed on the JSE Stock Exchange in South Africa. [2] It is now a 100 % subsidiary of BidCorp, also listed on JSE. BidCorp, Bid Corporation Limited, is the holding company of Bidvest Group Limited. The History logo used from 1999 to 2010 and used from 2010 to 2015, the BFS Group, worked as a Booker Foodservice, originally owned by Booker Group, having been set up through a series of acquisitions and mergers. In May 1999 Booker sold the company to bidvest group, in November of that year the company was redirected as 3663, under the slogan First for the catering service. The name 3663 writes food on a phone and is pronounced three double-six three. In 2003, BFS Group acquired Suithenbank, a Bradford-based fruit and vegetable supplier, and Wilson Watson, a supplier of catering equipment, which was subsequently renamed 3663 Catering Equipment. In 2009 the company acquired Giffords Fine Foods. In 2010 the company's activities were divided into two separate divisions, 3663 and Bidvest Logistics. In 2011, the 3663 brand was re-directed with a new logo, vehicle suit and slogan, inspired by you. In June this year, Inverness Farmers, a local wholesaler in the Scottish Highlands, was acquired, which had started to be a milk supplier. In July 2012, BFS Group acquired Oban-based wholesaler Forteith Foodservice, a family business operating in the Argyll area. In October, South Lincs Foodservice, a wholesaler operating in Lincolnshire, was fully acquired after buying a minority stake earlier in the year. In September 2012, the acquiring companies of Giffords Fine Foods and Suithenbank merged to form Suithenbank Fresh & Fine Foods, to operate as a single fresh products division within 3663. In February 2014, 3663 was reappointed as Bidvest 3663. In July 2015 Bidvest 3663 was reappointed as Bidvest Foodservice, meaning that the name 3663 ceased to be used in any branding by the company after more than 15 years of use. On February 16, 2016, Bidvest Foodservice announced that it would change its name to Bidfood. The change follows the separation of global bidvest foodservice companies from the Bidvest Group when it was listed independently on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange in May last year. The change took effect on April 3, 2017. The list meant that Bidvest Foodservice UK, along with bidvest foodservice's other businesses around the world, have changed their name to Bidfood reflecting this. Bidvest Foodservice Operations The Company's Bidvest Foodservice division operates as a food service wholesaler that supplies fresh, frozen, environmental and non-food products to customers in a wide range of sectors in the catering and catering services sector; including local authorities, NHS trusts, defence contractors, hotel and restaurant chains, and many independent operators in the hospitality industry. Bidvest Foodservice manages a fleet of approximately 850 temperature-controlled delivery vehicles[1] delivering fresh, chilled and frozen products from 23 warehouses and 4 regional distribution centres across the UK. [3] It has 5 major offices across the country. [4] Bidvest Logistics Logistics provides distribution and supply chain services to larger players in the catering industry,[5] including many well-known restaurant and fast-food brands.
