CUSTOMER JOBS

Below list the jobs you know your company will be having and would like to have a Job Account created for. When we say Job Account. we mean that all jobs for your company will be placed on separate accounts under your company's main account. For example: Your main customer account number would be 1234 and your master job is 0. When a job is added to your account it will be added in numerical order. (Example: The first job on your account would be listed as 1234 Job 1)
