PRELUDE

from Symphony No. 5, Op. 42

Charles-Marie Widor
(1844-1937)

 PRAYER OF THE DAY

In our strength and in our weakness, we worship you, O God.

You use us when we are strong and support us when we are weak.

In our youth and in our mature years, we worship you, O God.

You are with us in laughter and in play when we are young;

you give us wisdom as we grow old.

In our doubting and in our faith, we worship you, O God.

You inform our doubts and confirm us in our Christian faith.

In our reflection and in our service, we worship you, O God.

In all the changes of life, we worship you, loving God!

* HYMN NO. 463 How Firm a Foundation FOUNDATION

1 How firm a foun - da - tion, ye saints of the Lord,
 2 "Fear not, I am with thee, O be not dis-mayed,
 3 "When through the deep wa - ters I call thee to go,
 4 "When through fi - ery tri - als thy path - way shall lie,
 5 "The soul that on Je - sus hath leaned for re - pose, is laid for your faith in God's ex - cel - lent Word!

 for I am thy God, and will still give thee aid;
 the riv - ers of sor - row shall not o - ver - flow;
 my grace, all suf - fi - cient, shall be thy sup - ply;
 I will not, I will not de - sert to its foes;

What more can be said than to you God hath said,
 I'll strength - en thee, help thee, and cause thee to stand, for I will be near thee, thy trou - bles to bless,
 the flame shall not hurt thee; I on - ly de - sign that soul, though all hell should en - deav - or to shake, to you who for ref - uge to Je - sus have fled?

 up - held by my righ - teous, om - nip - o - tent hand.
 and sanc - ti - fy to thee thy deep - est dis - tress.
 thy dross to con - sume, and thy gold to re - fine.
 I'll nev - er, no, nev - er, no, nev - er for - sake."

* PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Most merciful God, forgive us.

We imagine we can live without you, when you give us our very breath.

We seek control over others rather than strive to live in unity.

We allow fear to overtake us, even though our lives are in your hands.

Draw us back into your steadfast love and shape us into the likeness of your Son, Jesus Christ, in whose name we pray.

* SILENT CONFESSION

* DECLARATION OF FORGIVENESS

Sisters and brothers, the good news is this:

grace is poured out like water;

mercy flows like a never-ending stream,

bathing us in goodness and love.

Live then, as those who have received new life,
rejoicing in your baptism.

* GLORY TO GOD

arr. Val Parker

Glo - ry to God, Glo - ry to God,

Glo - ry to God in the high - est,

Glo - ry to God, Glo - ry to God, and

 SHARING CHRIST'S PEACE (Worshipers may greet one another with words of Christ's peace.)

The peace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

SOLO

Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen

African-American spiritual

arr. Harry Burleigh

(1866-1949)

Katie Ray, Soprano

MUSIC IN WORSHIP

This morning's opening hymn is significant in that this is the very first hymn we have sung as a congregation in our refurbished chancel with our new Fisk organ, having not sung together in this sanctuary since November 2019. "How Firm a Foundation" speaks of the foundation of Christian life as being rooted in God's word. We are assured when we face difficulties and dangers, as we know we must, we are not alone, but supported by One whose strength will enable us to bear whatever is required.

At the conclusion of today's service, Soprano Katie Ray sings one of the most familiar African-American spirituals, "Nobody Knows the Troubles I've Seen." In the spiritual genre, this is known as a "sorrow song." Yet even in sorrow, the song points us to victory. Note the "Glory Hallelujah" at the end of each refrain, focusing on a joyous homecoming rather than on trials of this earthly life. The power of this spiritual is its ability to call the listener to empathize with the slaves in their belief of the triumph of faith over adversity as we struggle with our own spiritual "chains."
