

Congratulations Denise Harrington!

Denise Jones Harrington, LSW, LAC received her Certification as a Senior Advisor on July 6, 2021. Certified Senior Advisors (CSAs) are professionals, who in the course of their practice, apply multidisciplinary knowledge of the aging process and aging issues to identify the most appropriate options and solutions for seniors' individual needs and best interests to improve their lives. Denise joins over 3100 professionals across the U.S. who are currently certified and meet all criteria for holding the CSA designation.

The Certified Senior Advisor (CSA)® is the leading certification for professionals serving older adults, and is a designation awarded to qualified individuals. Earning the CSA certification requires individuals to pass a rigorous exam and to uphold the highest ethical standards for the benefit and protection of the health and welfare of seniors. CSAs are multidisciplinary professionals who have demonstrated advanced knowledge in the multiple processes of aging.

Denise received her Certification as Certified Dementia Practitioner from the National Council 2019. The CDP certification represents that the professional has received comprehensive knowledge in the area of dementia care, achievement in completing the Alzheimer's Disease and Dementia Care course/seminar, met the NCCDP requirements for CDP certification, applied for the CDP certification and received the CDP certification.

As a CDP, Denise commits to ongoing professional development through NCCDP Staff Education Week or other educational opportunities and re-certification every two years. A CDP certification reflects a deep personal commitment on the part of the professional's accountability by abiding by NCCDP the Ethic's statement, inspiring confidence, and dedication in an individual's professional knowledge through quality of life and quality of care provided by the CDP to the dementia patient.

Denise is available to assist members and their families with questions and planning needs. Feel free to contact her by phone 317-509-7085 or email dharringtonipc@gmail.com
