Pastoral Ponderings

Each year during the season of Lent we talk about the traditions of sacrifice (giving something up for Lent) or a practice of doing something new for the season. In order to help us all celebrate Lent with study, prayer, or spiritual practice we ask Teams, committees and groups to avoid meetings. We want everyone to use that time doing something that feeds their faith.

Two years ago, I just happened to have a pass for unlimited yoga for a month at the time Lent started. I went to yoga 5 times a week. I felt better physically, mentally, and spiritually. Unfortunately, once all the night meetings started up again my yoga went back to an occasional practice. I am going to try again this year. I want to find a way to maintain the practice after Easter. That might mean getting up early for morning class or skipping lunch for a mid-day class. I am going to have to be more flexible in my scheduling as well as my postures.

We have opportunities here at church for you to add Lenten practice to your schedule. We will have the Wednesday night class, Sunday morning classes, the regular weekly Bible Study for Women on Tuesday at 11:00, the Men's Prayer Breakfast on Wednesday at 8:15, and a special art experience. Why don't you add one of them to your routine for a few weeks and see how it feels?

Historically, Lent is a time to prepare for baptism and church membership or to re-commit to your faith. For me it has become a time to remember the connection between body, mind, and spirit and use them all in prayer and meditation. Let me know how you use your time this year.

Blessings - Pastor Teri

Book of the Month

Led by Carol McDonald at Noon in Calvin Hall - lunch provided

Sunday, March 17 – Not Just Black and White by Anni K. Reinking, Ph.D. In Anni Reinking's world, even the smallest occurrence of everyday life raises new questions and reflections, involving sociology, anthropology, religion, and psychology. This is Anni's emotionally and intellectually moving memoir of her life as a white mother raising a black son in multiracial America – but it is much more than that. It's about an extraordinary journey towards awareness and learning. Anni shares her family's story and is open about her own stumbling as a mother through cross-racial experiences in which she has discovered how much she has yet to learn. This book is available in hardcover and in paperback, and at your closest neighborhood library.

Wednesday Night Lenten Study

Holy Week Celebration of the Arts

Northminster invites you to express yourself through the arts by participating in the Holy Week Celebration of the Arts.

If you are a photographer, visual artist, poet, digital designer, quilter, knitter, fabric artist, fingerpainter, potter, play dough sculptor, composer or doodlers – your gifts are welcome!

Your art may reflect the themes of Holy Week, the joy of Easter or your own faith journey. All submissions will be displayed throughout the church during Holy Week and the two weeks following Easter.

Don't consider yourself an artist? Two workshops will be offered for those who don't consider themselves artistic. If you can tear, cut and glue you are invited to join others on Saturday morning, March 9, from 10:00-12:00 or Sunday, March 24, from 12:15-2:15 (snacks provided!). Three beautiful but easy art projects will be demonstrated and you will likely finish your creation before you leave. Youth 12 and older and all adults are invited to participate.

Please register so we can plan for supplies. (Registration deadline for March 9th class is March 6th. Deadline for March 24th class is March 20th.) Call 317-251-9489 or go to: <http://bit.ly/HolyWeekArtsNPC>

Northminster Church is a Stephen Ministry Congregation

Stephen Ministry is grounded in Jesus' commandment to "love each other as I have loved you" (John 15:12). By means of this lay ministry, those in our congregation and community who are hurting receive the love and support they need through a one-to-one, confidential, caring relationship with a trained Stephen Minister.

If you, a family member, or a friend need someone who cares; someone who supports; someone who listens; and someone who shares, or if you would like more information about Northminster's

Stephen Ministry program, please contact Ruth Moore or Teri Thomas in our church office (317-251-9489) or our referrals coordinator, Carol Campbell (317-432-7889).

OGHS - Happy 70th Anniversary

Pastor Teri Thomas' February 10th message, "Sermon on the Mount Part 3," conveyed the perfect lead-in to our greatest opportunity for contributing to communities both near and far. Since 1949, One Great Hour of Sharing during the Lenten season has provided such teaching moments of sacrifice and giving. A generous OGHS offering provides funding for the following:

- Presbyterian Disaster Assistance (PDA), such as the 2017 hurricanes as well as international aid;
- Presbyterian Hunger Program (PHP), that seeks to address the root causes of hunger in addition to relieving hunger itself around the world; and

- Self-Development of People (SDOP), which assists low-income communities across the U.S. in farming, worker rights, immigration/refugee issues, etc.

Further information about OGHS can be found at: www.presbyterianmission.org/oghs. Designated OGHS envelopes will be in our church pews. Contributions can also be made by texting OGHS to 20222. The offering is collected Palm Sunday, April 14.

Let's be who Jesus preached to, and about — a community of Christians in word and deed who see beyond themselves and include anyone who takes up Christ's teachings. We are One. Great. Hour. Of Sharing.

Offering of Letters – Sunday, May 5

In John Crossan's book, God and Empire, Crossan talks about "the radicality of God's justice versus the normalcy of civilization's injustice." Think about that. As a society, we have become insensitive to so many daily injustices – gun violence, income inequality, costly healthcare, racial disparity, the daunting, ever-present plight of the hungry and the poor – that we often view these conditions as "normal." But God's "justice" does not accept this normalcy. God expects us to care for one another in a broad, enveloping, compassionate manner that pushes our faith community to action.

And so we invite you to participate in an effective approach to subduing, minimizing and, hopefully someday, eradicating hunger for all people. On Sunday, May 5, at 10 am and Noon, in the Gathering Place, we will meet for our annual Offering of Letters, proclaiming our belief in a just and caring world and petitioning our Congressional Representatives and Senators to support legislation to that end. We will have sample letters and/or bullet points to help you compose a heart-felt, succinct letter to your legislators. Please mark this on your calendar and join us in the Gathering Place in May.

(Previous "Offering of Letters")

Curious Conversations – March 17 and 24 at 10 am

Curious Conversations are a time for new worship attendees to learn more about Northminster. We talk about what it means to be a Christian and a Presbyterian in the 21st Century. We talk about the ministry and mission of NPC. We explore ways you can get involved in the life of the church. These Curious Conversations are also a time to discuss becoming an official member of the church.

Curious? Please contact Associate Pastor Ruth Moore at 317-251-9489 or ruthcmoore@northminster-indy.org if you can attend. Childcare is available with advance notice.

Deacons 2019 Spring Plant Sale

On Sundays, March 3rd and 10th, at 10 am and at Noon, the Deacons will be in the Gathering Place selling flowers for their spring fundraiser.

The Deacons raise their own funds to do mission and ministry. They are not supported by the church budget, so they appreciate your participation in this fundraiser.

Flats, annuals, herbs, vegetables, grasses, hanging baskets and specialty planters will be available. Last year the specialty planters were exceptional and very popular.

Order forms are an insert in this News & Views, and they are available to print on our website. You may mail in your order form and check (Deacons Plant sale in memo line), or pay by check or credit card on Sunday mornings. Order forms and payment are due March 15th.

Plants will be available for pick up on May 3rd, 10 am - 6 pm, in the north parking lot of NPC.

What Do Deacons Do?

On March 3, the Deacons will be taking communion to those who are unable to attend worship on a regular basis or are home bound. If you would like to be added to this list and receive communion from a deacon, please contact Associate Pastor Ruth Moore at 317-251-9489 or ruthcmoore@northminster-indy.org

Spiritual Direction with an Intern Director

Are you interested in exploring God's presence or grace in your life, deepening your experience of prayer or spiritual practices?

Elder Mary Beth Riner is currently completing the first year of the spiritual direction program at the Benedict Inn in Beech Grove. She and her classmates are seeking interested individuals who would be willing to participate in monthly sessions. Your name will be kept confidential.

What is spiritual direction?

Spiritual direction is about one's relationship with God. No matter your faith background, if you desire to: recognize God's presence or grace in your life; deepen your experience of prayer or spiritual practices; listen to God's Spirit speaking within you; integrate spirituality into your daily life; or, get to know the God who desires and loves you deeply, then spiritual direction is for you. Spiritual direction is more about being encouraged in your spiritual journey than being directed. We believe God's Spirit is the true Director and the human director helps to facilitate the movement of the Spirit in the life of one who comes for direction by listening deeply to the other.

Is there a fee?

If you are seeing one who is in training as an intern spiritual director, there is no fee. (Currently, for a spiritual director who is not an intern one might expect to pay up to about $75 per session.)

Spiritual directors do not meet with family members, close friends, or those they see regularly in work or social settings. If you are able to help an intern to develop the skills and art of spiritual direction by meeting with one, your participation in this program will be greatly appreciated. Please give your name, email address and phone number to either Mary Beth Riner (mary.riner@gmail.com or 317-417-8730) or to Antoinette Purcell, OSB (antoinettep1964@gmail.com; or 317-787-3287 ext. 3022). Thank you for giving this your time and attention!

Attend the Montreat Conference on Worship and Music!

What is it?

The Montreat Conference on Worship and Music is a multi-generational conference that involves art, lectures, handbells, instrumental ensembles, choirs, inspiring worship, Bible study, storytelling, global music, dance, fun and games, playing in the great outdoors, and fellowship with new friends and Northminster folks.

Think of it as a one-week summer camp for children, youth and adults, held in the beautiful mountains of western North Carolina (18 miles from Asheville).

Who is it for?

The conference is for ANYONE (all ages) who is interested in worship and the components of the spiritual life. It is not strictly a music conference.

When is it?

- Experience outstanding preachers and faculty.
- Improve your singing skills.
- Spend time with the family and other Northminster members.

NorthStars and Friends

At the end of July 2019, John and Marty Brooks will be retiring from the “administrative” duties of NorthStars fellowship group. We are looking for new leadership who would start in August 2019. This could be one or two people to take over the duties of planning the August pitch-in dinner that is held in Calvin Hall. From this dinner / meeting, most of the year’s special monthly events are planned for the next year with input from volunteers who are willing to plan and coordinate these events.

Not every month has to have an activity. Every year the community always has new and exciting shows, concerts, tours, talks, trips to take, and fellowship to share and enjoy with Northminster members and friends.

If you are interested, please contact John or Marty at (317) 848-6995 or n9kyc@yahoo.com.

NorthStars in April - Terre Haute

NorthStars are back on the road in April, travelling to Terre Haute to visit the CANDLES Holocaust Museum (acronym for Children of Auschwitz Nazi Deadly Lab Experiments Survivors). We will meet at church on Tuesday, April 16, departing by 8:30 am to arrive in time for the opening of the Museum at 10 am.

At 10:30 am, we will be treated to a presentation by Eva Kor, speaking about her Holocaust experience and her message of Forgiveness.

We will plan on lunch around 1 pm in Terre Haute, before returning to church by 4 pm.

Cost is $5 per person for the Museum, plus any transportation expenses and lunch on your own. We will reserve the church bus, though carpooling is preferred.

Please contact Dolly Craft at dollybike317@gmail.com or 317-502-2080 to indicate your interest. Reservation deadline is April 11. Newcomers are always welcome!

IHN / Family Promise

Starting the week of March 10, Northminster will open our doors for families in need for Interfaith Hospitality Network (IHN). For one week, we will host several homeless families, and we need your help to prepare meals, drive the van, entertain children and spend the night. We hope you will consider lending several hours of your time. Sign-up will begin online and in the Gathering Place every Sunday beginning March 10. Questions? See Dolly Craft or Nancy Jarrell.

Weekend Food for Kids

Volunteers Needed for Gleaners “Backsack” Project

On Thursday, March 14, the NorthStars fellowship group will again sponsor a Northminster workday at Gleaners Food Bank. We will work the assembly line to stuffs bags of food for school kids who are known to lack nutritional food at home. Gleaners distributes 10,000 of these bags every Friday through schools in central Indiana.

This year our work shift will be from 12:30 to 2:30 pm with standing and sitting work stations to accommodate individual needs. We’ll meet at Gleaners at 11:30 am for lunch and orientation before starting our shift. Box lunches will be provided, $5 each. Carpooling will be available, leaving church at 10:45 am.

This is the 6th year that Northminster will supply a minimum of 30 workers. Gleaners relies on over 21,000 volunteers each year to collect, assemble and distribute over 2 million pounds of free food to 21 counties in central Indiana. Please consider volunteering for this rewarding project. (Non-church members are welcome and invited!)

Contact Cheri or Bob Gudgel @ 317-844-7139 to reserve your place on the assembly line.

Spring is the Right Time for Jazz!

Sound & Spirit welcomes
Hora Certa
- Sunday, April 7, 4 pm

Here's a little Sound & Spirit detour from Bach and Bluegrass. How does it sound to welcome Spring with a Sunday afternoon of J A Z Z? Next we present Hora Certa, Sunday, April 7 at 4 pm, in the sanctuary at Northminster where this fusion is free.

HORA CERTA (Portuguese for 'Right Time') celebrates the exciting music of Brazilian masters and contemporary composers/artists. What does that mean, you ask? Think of the bossa nova, think of samba, think of choro, think of Egberto Gismanti, think of Stan Getz and Charlie Byrd.

The University of Louisville School of Music is professional home to Faculty Artist Mike Tracy, alongside Winton Reynolds, Giovanni Sena, Terry O'Mahoney, and Kiko Sebrían. The ensemble specializes in performing the many varied styles and rhythms that are unique to Brazil. The ensemble is led by saxophonist Michael Tracy, Director of the Jamey Aebersold Jazz Studies Program at the University of Louisville, and features Brazilian musicians, bassist Hamilton Pinheiro, and percussionist Kiko Sebrían.

an. Joining the group are pianist/keyboardist Winton Reynolds, and drummer Terry O'Mahoney. The ensemble features original material from the recently released CD HORA CERTA in addition to music by Antonio Carlos Jobim, Hermeto Pascoal, Moacyr Santos, João Donato, Gilberto Gil, Djalma Ferreira, Dominginhos, João Bosco, Oswaldo Amorim and more.

Brazilian music is the result of the fusion of European music brought by the Portuguese, African music that came with the slaves in the 16th century, and native Indian music that was already an established form on the continent when the colonization process started. Although often confused with the Spanish influenced music from Central America like the calypso, rumba, salsa and other variations, Brazilian music is very different. The rhythms are far more subtle and developed from geographical regions within the country. These very diverse regions, with their cultural differences, influenced Brazil's exciting music and musicians. That's how we get bossa nova from one region, samba from another, and charo, a gutsy general style.

From Bach to jazz to bluegrass, Sound & Spirit concerts celebrate regional and international artistry. These concerts are presented free of charge to the Broad Ripple Community and beyond. Funded by supporters and the audience, we accept a free-will offering to maintain standards of future events. For more about this and all future Sound & Spirit concerts, go to: <http://bit.ly/SandS18-19>.
