Forgetting Who's God

Following his election and inauguration as President of the United States, Abraham Lincoln selected his political rival Salmon P. Chase as his Secretary of Treasury. Chase was a very polarizing personality. President Lincoln, however, was not afraid to have him serve in his cabinet.

One example of Chase's alienating personality is Benjamin Wade, who served with Chase for a time as U. S. Senators from Ohio. He famously said, "Chase is a good man, but his theology is unsound. He thinks there is a fourth person in the Trinity." (Clint Johnson, Bull's-Eyes and MisFires).

Mankind has had that problem since Satan first planted that seed of doubt in Eve's ears in Genesis 3:4-5: "Then the serpent said to the woman, "You will not surely die. For God knows that in the day you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil." Don't listen to God, Satan is saying, become god!

Satan is busy still trying to plant seeds of doubt in as many hearts of possible. Even Christians are not immune from doubting their relationship with God. In times of doubt it is vital that we keep in mind that Satan only wins when we allow his doubts to outgrow our faith.
