January 29, 2023

Some groan when I tell them that in the late 90s and early 2000s I was a big fan of the band Creed. Admittedly their music, and in particular their lead singer's voice, was not great yet their lyrics often hit home with me. As I write this, one song stands out to me. The lyrics go something like this: "When you are with me, I'm free, I'm careless, I believe. Above all the others we'll fly this brings tears to my eyes. My Sacrifice."

I do not know who the band had in mind when they wrote this song but when I think of it today I can not help but think of our savior, Jesus, and the emotions that His sacrifice brings about in me. Can you see the connection? When Jesus is with us, and we are with Him, there is freedom from sin and from the cares that are associated with sin. His sacrifice enables in us the sort of belief and mindset that Paul espouses in the famous Philippians 4:13. I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.

Further, the picture of the day of Jesus' return comes to mind in the latter half of the quoted lyrics. Remember what 1st Thessalonians 4:16-17 says? The dead in Christ will rise and then we who are alive and remain will be caught up together with them in the clouds. Above all the others, we'll fly leaving this life behind, going home to an eternal inheritance that has been prepared for us.

All of this is possible because of His sacrifice. It is all manifested by the fact that Jesus of Nazareth was different than everyone else who has ever lived. You see, we are born and we die. Jesus was born TO die. To be our sacrifice. The thought brings tears to my eyes.

- Andrew
