THOUGHTS ON ELDERS

Being an elder in the church is a good work (1 Tim.3:1). It certainly is not an easy work. But it is God's plan to have men serving in this capacity.

There are necessary qualities listed in 1 Timothy 3 and Titus 1 for any man desiring to serve as an elder. These qualities, given by God, include two traits that each elder must exhibit in order to be effective in this good work.

An elder must have knowledge of the Bible and his congregation. Regular study of God's Book and personal interaction with the church members are necessary. Then capable teachers can be identified and teaching that meets the needs of all can be designed. Elders need to know every member, from youths to seniors to guide them in their spiritual walk with God.

An elder must have wisdom to make good decisions. There will be pressure from within and without the church. Good judgments must be made. Wisdom is needed to guard the church from false doctrines and to deal with individual problems. Wisdom is needed when listening to sound advice from others who may have more experience in a particular area.

Knowledge and wisdom go together and help make an elder effective in His service to God.

ATTENTION MEN:

A schedule has been added to the church website for August's monthly assignments of men who lead in worship. Please check the schedule by signing into the Members Area (you will have to register if you have not already done so), then click on "Monthly Assignments." If you know that you will be absent when you are scheduled, let Herb or David know so changes can be made.

The coin cans for Southeastern Children's Home should be turned into the church office by September
10. If you have any questions, see
Rob.
