February 18, 2024

If we take a few moments to reflect on our lives most of us would acknowledge that we have made both good and bad decisions during our lifetimes. The beautiful thing about Christianity is that it is a religion of choice. It is not passed down through our physical bloodline in the way that Judaism was passed down in the Old Testament. We are born into it only if we decide to be. No one else can choose whom we are going to serve. My salvation is determined based on Christ's work on the cross and whether I decide to obey Him, serve Him and follow Him.

That means that when I stand before the judgment seat of Christ, only the choices that I have made in my life will be under consideration (2nd Corinthians 5:10). The righteousness (or lack thereof) of my parents, siblings, friends, or enemies has no bearing on whether I hear the words "enter in" or "depart from me." When that moment comes, will my choices in life be reflected by the fact that my missteps, misdeeds, and mistakes have been erased by the blood of Jesus or will they stain my soul?

Before the foundations of time God planned for the redemption of man through the means of the sacrifice of His only begotten Son on the cross. He made a choice to see that an insurmountable debt would be paid. How about you? Choose this day, this hour, this minute, and this moment whom you will serve. No one else can do it for you.
