Goodbye, Boz

September 1

Once the notorious bad boy of college and pro football, Brian "The Boz" Bosworth found the spotlight in the late 80s due to his outstanding on-field performance and his outrageous off-field antics. Beneath the flamboyance, however, was a hurting and lonely man who desperately longed for freedom and peace.

Support Groups

We aren't created to do life alone. That is why we have created different groups such as GriefShare, DivorceCare, and ReGeneration to support each other as we walk through the trials and joys in life. Join a class to experience hope, support, and healing.

On-Campus Group Study: Book of Esther

Starts September 5

On Campus Groups at Northwoods are a great way for you to plug into community and grow in your spiritual journey. The Book of Esther is a true story—a historical narrative. But more than that, it's one of the greatest historical political espionage adventure thrillers ever written! There is no direct reference to God in the book, and that is what makes the Book of Esther very much like our lives. We don't usually see the clear, visible hand of God at work on our behalf. But if we will look closely, we will find that His hand is very clearly detectable in the various circumstances of our lives—bringing about His good purposes for us.

Changes to Four Steps

Due to the great turnout of our online Four Steps classes, we are now encouraging those who are interested in becoming members to take the Four Steps online. All of the Four Steps classes will still be offered on our Peoria campus on a semester basis, so continue to look at our event calendar on the website for more information on when those will be offered.
