Filled with Your Spirit, bought with Your blood
We are one people, a kingdom set free
The holy priesthood of Christ our King

And we will sing, we will sing

Worthy, Lamb who was slain
Of power and wealth, wisdom and strength
Every voice will praise You, every tongue confess
You are God

You are our sovereign, over all things
Nothing can stop You, Eternal King
This is Your anthem, the holy noise
A chorus of millions lifting one voice

Worthy, Lamb who was slain
Of power and wealth of wisdom and strength
Every voice will praise you, every tongue confess that You are Worthy, glorious King
You carried my cross, scorning its shame
Now my heart will praise you, every breath will say You are God

The kingdom established, in conquering love
