

Beyond the Fear: The Truth about Sports-related Concussions

An evening with USM alumnus Dr. Michael Collins '91

Join USM Corporate Partners as we welcome USM alumnus Dr. Michael “Micky” Collins '91 back to campus for an engaging presentation. Dr. Collins will discuss how, thanks to recent medical advances, athletes of all ages can get better and return to playing the sports they love after suffering a concussion.

Dr. Collins is Director of the University of Pittsburgh Sports Medicine Concussion Program. He is a consultant to numerous athletic organizations and teams, including Major League Baseball, the NFL, NASCAR, USA Rugby and major college programs.

- Free and open to the public
