Description:
Pediatrics Grand Rounds is a multidisciplinary and inter-professional series designed to improve a participant's ability to practice pediatric medicine by enhancing knowledge in clinical care, healthcare research, medical education, public health, and innovation implementation. Lectures and discussions showcase new pediatric procedures and address current topics in pediatric care. We encourage all providers to attend to learn different educational materials regarding pediatric patients.

Audience:
This course is designed for Hospitalists, Nurse Practitioners, Physician Assistants, Advanced Practice Nurses, Registered Nurses, Allied Health Professionals, Physicians, and Residents.

Learning Objectives:
At the conclusion of this activity, participants will be able to:

- Review the purpose and essential components of the Preparticipation Physical Evaluation (PPE)
- Summarize current AAP recommendations and CHSAA requirements for Colorado student-athletes
- Apply practical strategies to identify athletes requiring further evaluation, guide sports eligibility decisions, and improve athlete safety

Accreditation: The HCA Healthcare Continental Division is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians

Commercial Support: This activity was developed without support from any ineligible company. *The ACCME defines ineligible companies as those whose primary business is producing, marketing, selling, re-selling, or distributing healthcare products used by or on patients. Note: The ACCME does not consider providers of clinical services directly to patients to be commercial interests - unless the provider of clinical services is owned, or controlled by, an ACCME defined ineligible company.

Disclosure: The HCA Healthcare Continental Division is committed to providing CME that is balanced, objective, and evidenced-based. In accordance with the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) Standards for Integrity and Independence all parties in control of content are required to disclose all conflicts of interest with ACCME defined ineligible companies. None of the planners, faculty, and those in control of this educational activity have relevant financial relationship(s) to disclose with ineligible companies whose primary business is producing, marketing, selling, re-selling, or distributing healthcare products used by or on patients.
