

Are you a nurse working in hospice or palliative care in the NYC area?

Join other nurses and advance practice nurses for good conversation, networking and professional development. There are opportunities for leadership positions within the chapter.

The local NYC chapter of the Hospice and Palliative Nurses Association was developed to gather nurses, nurse practitioners and nurse researchers to share evidenced based practice, mentor a new generation, develop research initiatives and work to increase access to care for patients and families who need palliative care in the Metro NYC area.
