

National Association of Indian Nurses of America

Clinical Excellence Conference 2019

Abstract Review Criteria

I. Rubric for Abstracts Describing Research/ QI project

Criteria	Excellent (3)	Good (2)	Fair (1)	Poor/ absent (0)
Purpose: Identify the overall goal of the study/ practice initiative
Relevance/Significance: Describe the project's relevance and importance in context of the conference goal(s).
Implementation/ Method: Describe the research method/ the process of implementation.
Evaluation: Describe findings of the research/ For QI project- discuss the evaluation data demonstrating the value of the practice change
Implications for Practice: Discuss specific implications for nursing practice, nursing education & research.
Academic Quality of Abstract: References, objectives quality of writing, APA format

II. Rubric for Abstracts Describing a Concept /Trend/ Innovations in disease management or Pharmacotherapeutics (Any content other than research or QI projects)

Criteria	Excellent (3)	Good (2)	Fair (1)	Poor/ absent (0)
Relevance/Significance: Describe the concept's relevance and importance in context of the conference goal(s).
Summary of evidence : Describe the latest evidence related to the concept or innovative idea
Concept/ innovative idea: Describe the concept/ innovative idea demonstrating the value for nursing and or health care
Implications for Practice: Discuss specific implications for nursing practice, nursing education & research.
Academic Quality of Abstract: References, objectives quality of writing, APA format				