Aloha,

The American Organization of Nurse Leaders (AONL) – Hawai'i Chapter is pleased to offer scholarships to nursing students within the nursing education community as a means of promoting professional growth and development.

The American Organization of Nurse Leaders (AONL) is a national organization of nurses who design, facilitate, and manage care. AONL has more than 8,700 members. AONL provides leadership, professional development, advocacy and research in its effort to advance the nursing profession and patient care. The organization promotes nursing leadership excellence, and shapes health care public policy.

Scholarship applications will be accepted from qualified individuals who are residents of the State of Hawaii and are currently enrolled in BSN, MSN, or other master's or doctorate level degree-granting program in nursing, healthcare, management, or leadership. In order to qualify, applicants must demonstrate the following: (1) academic excellence, (2) commitment to the profession of nursing, (3) involvement in their community, and (4) leadership ability.

For 2019 there will be four $2000 scholarships awarded.

DEADLINE: The enclosed application should be completed and postmarked no later than midnight, Friday, September 20, 2019.

Completed applications are to be mailed to:

AONL Hawaii
