

SNOI CONFERENCE-A 2020 VISION FOR THE FUTURE

~ KEYNOTE SPEAKERS ~

Dr. Pooja Joshi received her Bachelor of Medicine & Surgery and MD in Pharmacology & Therapeutics from University of Health Sciences in India. Dr. Joshi began her industry career by supporting medical affairs activities for newer treatment options in type 2 diabetes mellitus and has published papers and presented posters on this topic. Thereafter, she moved her career interests to vaccine preventable diseases and spends time helping people understand the science of vaccines and its impact on patients' lives.

Dr. Mark Rasmus, MD has appeared on television and frequently speaks to community groups and physicians. He has conducted clinical research and has published articles in sleep disordered breathing and CPAP humidification. Dr. Rasmus will educate on school start times and the effects of sleep deprivation in adolescence.

Jake Overall, co-founder and teacher from Boise Codeworks, will be introducing conference participants to the NASN and DANA websites. Codeworks is recognized by Inbounds as the 2019 Best of Treasure Valley and as a 2020 Idaho's Best winner.

Lauren Adams, RDN, LD, CDE and territory manager for Tandem Diabetes Care, will address diabetes in the school setting and new and evolving technologies. Lauren is passionate about empowering other people with diabetes to live their best life and shares her experiences living with type 1 diabetes for the past 28 years. Tandem is the the developer of cutting edge diabetes software notably the Tslim insulin pump.

Dr. John Condie, MD pediatric neurologist from St. Luke's Children's hospital will review seizure management in the school setting. Dr. Condie graduated from OHSU and is board certified in neurology. Ashlei Debolt from Liva Nova will follow-up with a presentation on the Vagal Nerve Stimulator in the pediatric population.