

MARCH 26, 2021 0830 - 11AM

Power of Relationships and Personal Journey as a Change Agent,

Ahnyel Jones-Burkes, LSNA Director of Policy and Health Advocacy

Nursing is Political - How to Move Mountains with Grass Roots Efforts

Thea Ducrow, PhD, LSNA Executive Director

Legislative Update: Nursing Issues in the 2021 Spring Legislative Session

Randal Johnson, SSG

Perspectives from a Policy Maker and Nurse

La. Rep. Dustin Miller, District 40

How the Pandemic Impacted APRNs and the Opportunity to Increase

Access to Care in Louisiana

Kathy Baldridge, President of LANP

Join us at this virtual event to review strategies for nurses to utilize while advocating for the nursing profession as well as the citizens of Louisiana.

To register, click on this link, or go to www.lsna.org under Advocacy tab, or email us at lsna@lsna.org and we can help you register. This event is open to all nurses in Louisiana.

Pending contact hours participants may claim is maximum of 2.25 contact hours for this activity, commensurate with their participation and completion of a survey. Individuals in control of content have no conflicts of interest. Louisiana State Nurses Association is accredited as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.