Dr. Diane Smith is certified as a Certified Nurse Manager Leader (CNML) from the American Organization of Nursing Leadership.

She was one of the first nursing leaders to earn this certification in the country and has been a mentor for other nurse leaders. She worked at the same healthcare system in Arkansas for 33 years where she championed several cardiovascular programs, and was instrumental in opening one of the system's hospitals, where she served as the Chief Nursing Officer for 10 years prior to her retirement. Presently, Dr. Smith teaches nursing leadership on a graduate level at the University of Indianapolis.

Dr. Smith has presented her work locally, regionally and internationally over 30 years on a variety of critical care, progressive care, nursing leadership and nursing education topics.

Veteran Health Administration Employee Education System is accredited as a provider of continuing nursing education by the American Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

6.5 contact hour(s) awarded to nurses by Veterans Health Administration, attendance to the entire program and submission of an evaluation is necessary to receive the contact hour(s).
