➤ BIO: I am Patricia S. Caldwell BSN RN MBA DRP [C], and I was Born in the Newark, New Jersey in Essex County. A 1986 graduate of Benedictine Academy all girls High school in Elizabeth, New Jersey. My husband's name is Michael, and my son's names is Tristan.

➤ EDUCATION: Registered Nurse having received my Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) and a Master of Science in Health Administration (MSHA) and is pursuing her Doctor in Nursing Practice.

➤ WORK: 20+years of established success in the healthcare field, with strong emphasis on quality, education, and process improvement. Over the past few years, I have collaborated with the ambulatory clinical education department, Risk Management, Accreditation and Regulatory as well as Corporate Compliance, and Corporate Community Engagement to identify areas of high risk to patient safety, process inconsistencies, and monitoring for compliance for best practices. Currently working as Novant Health medical group Director central clinical operations, (60+ clinics across 3 states). I have also collaborated with Novant Health and other organizational leaders to improve clinical quality outcomes and steered quality improvement initiatives such as Value based care and Emergency Management for Behavior Health patients across the Care Delivery Organization.

➤ PERSONAL: I am president of Chi Chi Chapter of Chi Eta Phi Nursing Sorority, Incorporated with commitment to community service in the community we serve. I enjoy riding my 4-wheeler after a raining day and spending time with my family in Gee Chee Gullah Country. I am active member on the Board of Directors for American Red Cross and Northwest Goodwill in Winston-Salem, NC, on the Forsyth Tech Advisory Board And EPIC in NC and VA.

➤ WHY: It is personal for me before I became a nurse, and I always assisted in the caring for others. I joined Chi Chi Beta on at the beautiful campus of Winston-Salem State University. I am self-for-filled to know that my efforts have assisted healed someone's body and mind. Service to the community is my passion.
