Jeff Solheim

RN CEN TCRN CFRN FAEN

Jeff Solheim is a Registered Nurse with a varied history. Jeff started his career as an otorhinolaryngology critical care nurse and after three years, transferred to the emergency department where he has spent most of his career. Jeff's roles have varied and include staff nurse, charge nurse, nursing administrator, nursing educator, trauma program manager, state surveyor and cruise ship nurse. While working in the emergency department, Jeff became a flight nurse and continues in that role currently working as an international flight nurse.

Jeff was also the founder and executive director of a humanitarian medical organization that deployed medical teams to the developing world. Jeff served in that role for over 25 years and through his organization, has provided medical care to more than a half million people on six of the seven continents. Jeff also served as President of the Emergency Nurses Association in 2018 and as President of the Nursing Organizational Alliance in 2020. Jeff started Solheim Enterprises in 2004 and has spoken in all 50 states and 10 different countries. Jeff has authored more than 25 books and over 100 journal articles. He has contributed to dozens of other publications.

Aside from nursing, Jeff is the proud father and grandfather. In his spare time, you are likely to find him playing video games or hiking the most challenging trail he can find.
