

THE QUEEN'S MEDICAL CENTER

"Creating a healthy work environment (HWE) enables nurses to provide the highest standards of compassionate patient care while being fulfilled at work."

- American Association of Critical-Care Nurses (AACN)-

Live Virtual Learning Event hosted by Queen Emma Nursing Institute (QENI)

Creating a Healthy Work Environment in Our Healthcare Settings

March 31, 2022 | 3:30 p.m. to 5 p.m. | Free Event

Request to Receive Webinar Access

@ <https://bit.ly/AACN-HWE>

Or via QR code

Learning Objective: Increase your knowledge in creating a healthy work environment.

- Learn how to define well-being for yourself and determine how to integrate your value into our ecosystem now, tomorrow and in the future
- Discuss the challenges with implementing HWE standards
- Examine solutions using implementation science

Special Presentations	Invited Speakers
Rooted in Strength	Beth Wathen, MSN, RN, CCRN-K AACN President
Implementing Healthy Work Environment Standards: Does it have to be so difficult?	Amanda Bettencourt, PhD, APRN, CCRN- K, ACCNS-P AACN President-Elect

For more information: Contact Rose Hata (rhata@queens.org)

This event has been submitted for approval for Continuing Nursing Education (CNE) hours.

The Queen's Medical Center is approved as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the Wisconsin Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

This educational activity is free from the undue influence of commercial interest organizations.

To earn CNE, attendees must attend 100% of the internet live course and complete an electronic evaluation.

Partial Credit is not available.