

Navigating Your Nursing Journey

A virtual CE offering provided by ANA-Vermont in partnership with the NEMSD*

Friday, December 15, 2023
at 12:00 pm EST via Teams

Participants will learn about Career Crafting as a program that can be used to mitigate nurse burnout, including the three steps nurses can take to craft their nursing career, and help them to find joy in nursing again.

Fee: $10

Registration link: ANA-Vermont Nursing Events

Jaclyn Davis, DNP, MBA, RN, is a seasoned engagement coach with more than a decade of experience in nursing—L&D, ICU, management, and executive wellness leadership—has a passion for helping nurses discover true fulfillment in their profession. As the creator and founder of Career Crafting LLC, Jaclyn empowers nurses to embrace their vocational calling and purpose by promoting work engagement and professional growth. Jaclyn holds a BSN and MSN from Loyola University Chicago and recently graduated from Yale University with a Doctorate of Nursing Practice in Healthcare Leadership, Systems, and Policy.

Continuing Education Credit: 1 CE

ANA-Vermont is an Approved Provider Unit through the NEMSD