

The Prevalence of Subclinical Seizures and the Utility of POC EEG for Early Detection

A multidisciplinary approach between Neuro, ED & ICU

July 25, 6:00 PM - 8:00 PM

STRIPSTEAK Waikiki***

2330 Kalakaua Avenue, Suite 330
Honolulu, HI 96815

*parking at International Market will be validated

Join us for an invite-only dinner and conversation on:

- The risks and prevalence of non-convulsive seizures in the emergency department
- Best practices for rapid seizure assessment and management
- The resulting impacts on patient care and department operations

RSVP NOW

Use this URL if the RSVP button doesn't work:
<https://marketing.ceribell.com/07252024>

GUEST SPEAKER

Matthew Kaplan, MD

Medical Director of ER
Mission Hospital

Matthew Kaplan, MD completed his emergency residency at UC Irvine after earning his medical degree from Tulane University School of Medicine. He is currently the Director of the Emergency Medical Department at Mission Hospital, and member of the Medical Executive Committee. He is the Chairman of the Interdisciplinary Practice Committee and sits on the Emergency Medical Services Committee. Dr. Kaplan has 3+ years of experience with rapid EEG.