

Please join us for an evening reception featuring The Disposables, a unique exhibit that highlights the tragedy of physician suicide through the moving artwork of Jeremy Rosario.

Jeremy crafts breathtaking portraits made from donated disposable medical materials—some directly from the colleagues and families of those lost to suicide.

Presented by The Disappearing Doctors, a global initiative to boost awareness and remove barriers to mental health care. This experience is open to all in our healthcare community.

- Date: Tuesday, Sept. 10, 2024
