

Keynote Presenter:

Devendranath Mannuru, MD

Born in India, completed medical school training in India, moved to the U.S. to pursue further training and practice. Completed internal medicine residency in New York and have been practicing as a hospitalist since 2011. I carry a deep passion for education, teamwork, collaboration, clinical documentation integrity, quality, safety, and the patient experience aspects of medicine. Currently I hold various job portfolios at Sanford Fargo and UND.

Presentation title:

Nurse-Physician/Clinician Collaboration: The Most Important Aspect of 'Safe and Effective Patient Care'